

VACANCIES

Letlaka Media, publisher of the Free State's leading provincial newspaper The Weekly and other titles, is eager to recruit the services of the following key professionals:

SALES EXECUTIVES

We are looking for a passionate, determined, hardworking, motivated and self-driven SALES EXECUTIVES who can join, the leading provincial newspaper. We are seeking for the services of sales representatives to expand our sales team.

Areas:

- Bethlehem
- Bloemfontein
- QwaQwa
- Welkom

Job specification:

- Strong sales skills, self starter that can work independently.
- Outgoing personality polite, energetic with a positive attitude.
- Must handle stress effectively.
- Must have a good time management-diary management.
- Requires excellent communication, interpersonal skills and adaptability.
- Good administration skills for reporting and budget control.
- Present a professional image at all times.
- Deliver professional and marketable presentation skills.
- Flexibility and willing to work extended hours as and when required.
- Driver's licence advantageous
- And be willing to travel in the Free State province.

Qualification:

- Diploma / Certificate / National Diploma or B.com in Marketing or related fields.
- Minimum of 3-years sales experience is required.
- Fluent in English and Afrikaans.

Remuneration:

- Competitive remuneration will be paid to the right candidate.

The ideal candidate should have traceable credentials in marketing or sales, including newspaper production, as well as wide experience and contacts in the Free State province as well as South Africa, the region and internationally.

Attractive remuneration packages are in place for the successful candidates for the advertised vacancies.

If you fit the bill and want a new exciting career with a growing media company with expanding operations around South Africa and beyond, send your application by mail to maryna@letlaka.co.za by February 5, 2016.

For enquiries contact Maryna @ 051 446 4720